ACTING CHIEF JOSEPH CANNATELLA
CHIEF OF INVESTIGATIONS
MORRIS COUNTY PROSECUTOR'S OFFICE

OCTOBER 20, 2007

Morris County Prosecutor Robert A. Bianchi, Esq., and Acting Chief of Investigations Joseph A. Cannatella announce the arrest of 87 individuals in a multi state operation. Those arrested are residents of Morris, Sussex and Essex Counties and some arrests extended as far as New York, Florida, North Carolina, and Texas. The charges against these defendants range from First Degree Leader of a Drug Trafficking Network to Fourth Degree Conspiracy to Possess Controlled Dangerous Substance. This operation is part of the Prosecutor's Office focus on disrupting drug activity at all levels.

The operation was part of a massive collaborative investigation of numerous police agencies including the Morris County Prosecutor's Office, Morris County Sheriff's Department, Morris County Park Police, New Jersey State Police, United States Marshals Service, Immigration and Customs Enforcement, United States Postal Inspector, New Jersey Parole, New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice, Human Services, Essex County Prosecutor's Office, United States Drug Enforcement Administration, New York City Police Department, Town of Boonton Police Department, Boonton Township Police Department, Chatham Township Police Department, Chester Township Police Department, Chester Borough Police Department, Denville Township

Police Department, Florham Park Borough Police Department, Hanover Township Police Department, Mountain Lakes Borough Police Department, Long Hill Township Police Department, Montville Township Police Department, Morris Plains Borough Police Department, Town of Morristown Bureau of Police, Morris Township Police Department, Mount Olive Township Police Department, Parsippany-Troy Hills Township Police Department, Pequannock Township Police Department, Randolph Township Police Department, Raritan Township Police Department, Riverdale Borough Police Department, Rockaway Borough Police Department, Rockaway Township Police Department, Roxbury Township Police Department, Wharton Borough Police Department, Morris County Office of Emergency Management, and Morris County Sheriff's CrimeStoppers.

Prosecutor Bianchi extends his thanks to the Chiefs of these municipal police agencies as well as the mayors and town councils. Prosecutor Bianchi stated, "It was essential in having these participants recognize the need for county wide cooperation in law enforcement that not only protects the county at large but their own communities as well. They should be applauded for their vision and courage in loaning those officers as we realize today that law enforcement must be cooperative and no longer separate entities."

A list of those arrested as of 9:30 am along with pedigree information, hometowns, charges, and bail follows this press release. No further comment or information will be provided until Monday, October 22, 2007.

Despite these pending charges, every defendant is presumed innocent, unless and until found guilty beyond a reasonable doubt following a jury trial at which the defendant has all of his rights guaranteed by the U.S. and New Jersey Constitutions and relevant state law.
